
This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf of a book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor discoloration and a small dark spot near the bottom center. The left edge of the page is bound, showing the inner cover material and stitching. The overall tone is warm and vintage.

The bill providing Federal aid to public schools is hanging fire in the U. S. Senate.

Senator-elect Payne, of Ohio, says positively that he will not be a candidate for the Democratic Presidential nomination. Glad to hear it.

The Senate Committee on Territories agree to give the name "Lincoln" to the new Territory which it is proposed to make of the southern portion of Dakota.

"It is as near absolutely certain as any future political event can be that whoever heads the Republican ticket, Robert T. Lincoln will be the nominee of the party for Vice President."

Young Fitzpatrick, who was hanged in Columbus, Friday, in his speech on the scaffold, said: "You young men who park them pistols, for God's sake, lay them down and pick up a Testament."

President Arthur takes a horse-back ride every day. When it rains he takes a rubber suit. He cuts a fine figure on the back of a horse, and his health is improving with the outdoor exercise.

There are but few people who know that there is a U. S. Senator named Vanderson. He is from Nebraska. The first time he was heard from was last week, in a very fine speech against the Fitz John Porter bill.

Public sentiment now points to ex-Speaker Randall, of Pennsylvania, as the Democratic nominee for President; but then, would the Waterson-Morrison Democratic support him?

Senator Tabbott's bill, which proposed full license and to give the proceeds from same to the schools of the State, was defeated in the Kentucky Legislature. This Legislature wants no license, and the schools kept up by local taxation.

The Cincinnati papers howled with indignation at the terrible condition of Kentucky society when Governor Blackburn sent two or three militia companies to Ashland, the Governor of Ohio had to call out the whole State militia for Cincinnati.

WATKINS is a bold and brilliant warrior, but badly lacking in the common sense necessary to a great leader. If they would ship him to Europe there to remain until after the Presidential election, the Democratic party would stand a better chance.

The resolution in the State Legislature to investigate the charges of bribery during the late Senatorial election has been withdrawn. We suppose it was better to withdraw it than to have a white-washing affair, which an investigation would have brought about.

Tax hat splitting division of judges, the quirk and turn of lawyers, and spilling jars ignoring the real evidence as to the guilt or innocence of criminals, turning them loose on mere technicalities, when the entire community are satisfied as to guilt, causes mobs. This is what needs remedying.

THERE is no apology to be offered for a mob anywhere, and more particularly that Cincinnati mob that wantonly destroyed the court house, the law enforcement of law against crime, and the fact that the verdict of justice are so often on the side of the richest man and the best lawyers, should make good people think.

The Legislature is still hammering away, principally on local bills. The Senatorial and other elections, the asylum investigations, and the flood have delayed work, and prevented members from being present. Senator Hallam proposes an extra session in which no private bill will be considered.

THE WINNIE BEATEN.

The much agitated whisky election in Cincinnati was defeated by the death vote of 185 to 83. This bill supported by the solid Kentucky delegation, except White, and so far as we know and believe, majority of Kentucky people.
